

Fanfare for a Bright Horizon

for concert band

The Composer

Dan Adams is retired from the Wooster City Schools in Wooster, Ohio, where he served as Band and Orchestra director and Instrumental Music Coordinator for nearly three decades. Prior to Wooster he taught at Mount Anthony Union High School in Bennington, Vermont.

He received a Bachelor of Music Education degree from The Ohio State University (major instrument trombone) and a Master of Music in Band Conducting from Northwestern University where he studied with John Paynter.

Adams has decades of experience as an adjudicator, brass musician, and conductor. Present and past memberships include the Ohio Music Education Association, NAFME, ASCAP, College Band Directors National Association, and American Federation of Musicians Local 159.

His compositions have been performed internationally and have been featured at The Midwest Band Clinic, the Western International Band Clinic, and have received recognition in the Bandworld Top 100 as well as numerous J.W. Pepper Editors' Choice selections.

Program Notes

Fanfare for a Bright Horizon is an exhilarating concert fanfare that captures the true spirit of optimism and expectation. Bold statements in the brass are accentuated by flourishes in the woodwinds. A brief, whimsical middle section allows for lyrical solos for trumpet and flute. The finale is highlighted by a glorious major chord in the brass.